

Australia's
Global University

Behaviours & psychological symptoms associated with dementia*

Workshop, Sydney

Tuesday 26th November 2019, 10am - 4pm

Registration FREE: www.eventbrite.com.au/e/72341408099 or email c.burley@unsw.edu.au

People living with dementia and families are especially welcome

Location: NeuRA, 139 Barker Street, Randwick, NSW 2031

Speakers

Scientia Professor Henry Brodaty,

Dementia Centre for Research Collaboration &

Professor Belinda Goodenough, Dementia Training Australia

Programme

10.00am-11.00am: Welcome and speakers

11.00am-11.30pm: Lightning talks (3-minute 'Hot Topics')

11.30am-12.00pm: Morning Tea

12.00pm-1.00pm: Mini talks (10-minute 'Current projects in Australia')

1.00pm-1.30pm: Lightning rounds (3-minute 'Hot Topics')

1.30pm-2.15pm: Lunch

2.15pm-4.00pm: Workshop:

(1) Appropriate language?

(2) Where do we need to go next with research?

(3) Where do we need to go next with improving care?

4.00pm: Summary and closing

* 'Behaviours and psychological symptoms associated with dementia' is used respectfully for communication between professionals, people living with dementia and families. For more information about preferences on terminology, please consult the Dementia Language Guidelines produced by Dementia Australia.

Australian Government

NHMRC National Institute for Dementia Research

